

Global Christmas Collection

The craft. The story. The impact.

Divine Top Sellers Set 23220 $26

This delicious gift set includes six best-selling Divine Chocolate bars, packaged in a pretty handmade paper box from Nepal! A delicious variety of dark and milk chocolate flavors.

A SERRV partner since 2000, Divine Chocolate is co-owned by a cooperative of over 85,000 cocoa farmers in Ghana. They earn fair prices for their cocoa beans while engaging in important business decisions that impact their communities. Through fair trade, these farmers are also able to fund local projects like building wells and schools.

Red Rethread Throw 32656 $34

This comfy, machine-washable cotton-polyester throw is handmade from recycled clothing, which is separated, spun into new threads, over-dyed, and re-woven on jacquard looms. Other colors available!

A SERRV partner since 1976, this artisan group, with 800+ artisans in more than 50 cooperatives and family workshops throughout India, provides interest-free loans, business and computer training, and fair wages. Many of these artisans also received pantry staples when much of India was locked down due to COVID.

Nativity Story Lanterns 33341 $46

This nesting lantern nativity set, handmade with recycled iron, features beautifully detailed depictions of the Christmas story. Pair each of them with a votive candle or LED tea light for a soft festive glow!

A SERRV partner since 2011, this artisan group in Moradabad, India supports over 500 individual artisans by providing them with fair wages and the resources they need to start their own businesses. This group also invests in community projects including clean water systems and payment of children's school fees.

Batik Snowman 37832 $28

This smiling snowman with scarf, hat and posable wire arms is hand-batiked with a nature-inspired design. Perfect for any snowman collector, or as a centerpiece for a shelf or mantel.

A SERRV partner since 1993, this artisan group in Java supports nearly a hundred small family workshops in rural villages around Yogyakarta—providing access to handcraft training, fair and steady wages, micro loans, financial training, and international markets to sell their handcrafts.

Sari Star Garland 46131 $12

Each star in this colorful garland is made from recycled paper, then covered in recycled sari, accented with gold cord and shiny white beads. No two garlands are alike!

A SERRV partner since 2008, this artisan group in Bangladesh employs women who escaped sex work and human trafficking on the streets of Dhaka. A protective workplace, psychological support, fair wages, and steady handcrafting income help them start a new life.

Cozy Cardinal Ornament 65770 $14

This needle-felted cozy wool cardinal ornament is perfect for any holiday tree. It also comes dressed for winter in a colorful hand-knit scarf.

A SERRV partner since 1993, the felt-making artisans in this group—90% of whom are women—receive not only support to send their daughters to school in an area where this is rare, but also access to paid maternity leave, which is also rare. For many, felting remains their only source of income while much of Nepal faces lockdowns due to COVID-19.

Snowman Gourd Ornament 73090 $14

This charming snowman ornament is made from a natural gourd which is burned, etched, and hand painted by artisans in Peru. If you shake it, you can hear the dried seeds rattle inside!

A SERRV partner since 1991, this artisan group is made up of over 350 artisans in the poorest parts of Peru. Two-thirds are women, and each earns fair wages for their traditional Peruvian handcrafts, as well as help with new product design and training in administration, accounting, and production. They also receive scholarships for their children.

Abaca Angel Tree Topper 74171 $18

This beautiful handmade angel features a dress made from natural sinamay, with wings of sustainable abaca fibers. She'll fit perfectly on the top of your tree, or as a display piece on a shelf or mantel.

A SERRV partner since 1976 (almost 50 years!), this artisan group provides steady employment to rural handcrafters in the Philippines, who rely on natural materials to make a living. Artisans also receive access to local and global markets, and training to help them become self-reliant through handcrafting.

Bright Wood Nativity 77047 $25

The vivid colors and lead-free paint on this charming 10-piece nativity set will be a hands-on favorite for young and old. Each hand-painted piece is carved from fast-growing alstonia wood.

SERRV partner since 1998, this artisan group in Sri Lanka employs 25 on-site workers and trains nearly 120 regional artisans to handcraft. They also help poor and semi-educated youth from marginalized areas of Colombo, the capital of Sri Lanka, obtain fair and steady work and wages.

Malai Raffia Coasters, Set of 4 91144 $28

Each of these gorgeous handmade coasters is crafted from hand-dyed raffia, which is woven into a beautiful red petal shape by master women weavers. A coordinating charger is also available.

A SERRV partner since 1996, this artisan group in Uganda employs rural women weavers, helping them earn a steady income. These artisans are less dependent on men for access to food, shelter, health, and education for their children. In addition, this artisan group actively lobbies for women's rights and provides education to end gender-based violence.

Quilled Paper Wreath Ornament 92934 $12

This beautiful miniature wreath ornament is made of colorful paper strips, each uniquely coiled, wrapped, and pinched by hand to create its intricate leaf and holly berry patterns, and bow.

A SERRV partner since 1999, this artisan group in South Vietnam supports marginalized rural artisans, who are able to work from home while earning fair wages for their work. They also receive healthcare and access to scholarships.

White Bark Pine Candle 95822 $14

This hand poured, phthalate-free soy candle features the crisp and clean aromas of evergreens, cool pine boughs, and a touch of salt-kissed air. Each tin burns for approximately 30 hours.

A SERRV partner since 2012, this group helps young moms in Chicago who are fighting homelessness and poverty by providing them with a paid 16-week job training program. They earn steady wages, receive job skills, education, and career counseling.
